FROM: David Bugg, Chair, Institutional Review Board
RE: IRB action on submitted human subject proposal
DATE: November 26, 2019

Your proposed use of human subjects for the submitted project “Rural Youth and Social Activism” has been approved by the Institutional Review Board and by the Provost of the college as of November 26, 2019. Most projects are approved for a term of one year. If your proposal is funded by a contract/grant the completion date may be based on the terms of the funding. Please note that a termination date of this approval has been set as November 26, 2020.

One month prior to November 26, 2020, the completion date you will receive a Notification of Project Renewal/Completion form. You must complete this form and return it to David Bugg, Chair of the Institutional Review Board no later than November 26, 2020. If you have not completed the portion of your study in which human subjects are used you may ask for an extension of approval using the same form.
